Make a Difference July is National Make a Difference to Children Month

PHOENIX – July is National Make a Difference to Children Month recognizing the impact one person can have on a child's life. Arizona's Court Appointed Special Advocates program (CASA) and the Foster Care Review Board (FCRB), part of the Arizona Supreme Court's Dependent Children's Services Division, want you to know how you can volunteer to make a true difference.

CASA and FCRB are volunteer programs administered by the Arizona Supreme Court that recruit and train individuals across the state with the knowledge and skills needed to advocate for children who are placed in the foster care system due to abuse or neglect. These volunteers make a life-changing impacts.
