OK, I am definitely showing my nerd side by making the theme of this newsletter Pi Day...but I was thinking that CASAs are a little bit like Pi Day. First of all, Pi π is an important part of calculation (as I'm sure you all remember from Geometry Class) and is the "technical" side of Pi Day. CASAs on one hand perform a "technical" position in gathering information and writing reports. But also, there is the fun side of Pi Day in which you celebrate by having a piece of pie. So, bear with me here... CASAs also have a treat aspect to their duties. You look forward to spending time with and getting to know your kiddos (hopefully, doing something fun or meaningful) which makes the job sweeter. I hope you enjoy all the pie and Pi in the following pages and thank you for all you do!

CASA MENTOR PROGRAM

NEW

SUPPORTING NEW CASAS AS THEY ADVOCATE FOR CHILDREN

CASA volunteers pour their hearts, time, and energy into advocating for children who need a steady, trusted adult in their corner. The work is meaningful, but it can also be complex and emotionally demanding. This year, Casa of Yavapai County is excited to launch a new initiative designed to strengthen the support system behind every advocate: the CASA Mentor Program.

WHY A MENTOR PROGRAM?

Every CASA volunteer—whether brand new or deeply experienced—benefits from having someone to turn to for guidance, encouragement, and practical insight. Our mentors are seasoned CASA advocates who understand the realities of the role: navigating court reports, collaborating with caseworkers, building rapport with youth, and managing the emotional weight that can come with advocacy.

The Mentor Program was created to:

- Support new volunteers as they take their first steps into casework
- Build confidence through shared experience and real-world advice
- Strengthen volunteer retention by ensuring no advocate feels alone
- Foster community among CASA volunteers across our program

HOW THE PROGRAM WORKS

Each new CASA volunteer will have the opportunity to be paired with a trained mentor for their first case. Mentors will:

- Check in regularly during the case
- Offer guidance on documentation, communication, and court expectations
- Share strategies for building strong, child-centered relationships
- Provide a listening ear when challenges arise

Mentors are not supervisors—they're peers. Their role is to walk alongside new advocates, offering support rooted in lived experience.

A STRONGER CASA COMMUNITY

The CASA Mentor Program is more than a new initiative—it's an investment in our volunteers and in the children we serve. When advocates feel supported, confident, and connected to other CASAs, their impact grows. We're thrilled to offer this new resource and grateful to every volunteer who makes our mission possible.

Together, we're building a stronger, more resilient CASA community able to offer high quality advocacy for the children in Yavapai County.

MEET OUR MENTORS

Our first cohort of mentors includes volunteers who have demonstrated exceptional commitment, professionalism, and compassion in their advocacy. They bring a wealth of knowledge and a shared passion for helping new advocates thrive. They recently completed CASA Mentor training and are excited to get started.

CASA SPOTLIGHT

How long have you been a CASA and for how many kiddos have you advocated?

I have had the pleasure of being a CASA for 7 years and have advocated for eight children in six cases. The majority of my cases have involved infants and toddlers as well as one case with a teenage young lady. Four of those cases ended in adoption or reunification, and one case the youth aged out. I am currently advocating for two children.

CASA Diane Johnson

What drew you to volunteer for the CASA Program?

After working for 20 years for the school system, I found myself missing the interaction with the kids. When I saw an ad for CASA volunteers, I investigated and discovered this was exactly the outlet I needed. Being a CASA has provided me with the opportunity to know that I am making a difference in a child's life and well-being. The time required on a case still gives me the opportunity to live the lifestyle I have chosen and to spend time with my family.

What has been your biggest challenge since becoming an advocate?

The biggest challenge is to remain neutral on each case and not take sides. As a CASA, we are advocating for the child's best interests. However, I also feel it is important to encourage the parents to participate in their services so they know they have our support and continue to move ahead toward reunifying with their child.

What training (besides Academy) has been most helpful for you in your work as a CASA?

CASA provides a wide variety of training opportunities. One of the trainings I felt was so beneficial was provided by MATFORCE. It involved becoming knowledgeable about the drugs currently circulating in our world. Understanding and recognizing the effects on families and children gave me a better understanding of how destructive drugs and alcohol are and gave me some insight as to how to recognize drug abuse. Another training I have attended every year is CASA Court Report Writing Training, which provides beneficial information to CASAs on how to write informative court reports. These can be very complex and need to be accurate so the judge can make the proper decision as to the placement of the child. I have learned something new with each CASA court report writing training and would encourage every CASA to take this ongoing training.

What have you found is most rewarding about being a CASA?

I find the most rewarding cases have involved the children being reunited with their parents after the parents have followed the recommendations and requirements of the Department of Child Safety and the court system. The parents have demonstrated their ability to change their lifestyles in order to provide the care, protection, and love every child deserves.

What advice would you give a new CASA?

I would advise new CASAs to realize each case is their most important case and to listen carefully to everyone involved. A lot of support and knowledge is available from their CASA coordinators and fellow CASAs so don't hesitate to reach out. We have all been "newbies" at one time! Be open-minded to the fact that even the parent you may initially think will never change can become a very good parent and a productive member of society with the right mindset and the proper guidance and assistance.

DASHBOARD ENTRIES

Whether an experienced or new CASA, navigating your way through the dashboard can be challenging at times. With the different log categories to choose from and knowing which category to put the information under as well as determining the accurate time increment, it can be a lot to take in. To alleviate some of that stress, we are here to answer some of the common questions CASAs have regarding dashboard entries with the hopes of making it an easier process for you as well as ensuring that you are receiving the credit you deserve for the awesome advocacy work you are doing on your case!

What information should be entered under Contact Log?

Anything that is case related. This includes: Outings with the child(ren) as well as visiting the children at placement's home. (Please include travel time to and from your home in your entry)

Reading disclosure, emailing, or talking with someone from the team (DCS Case Manager, therapist, placement, attorney/GAL)

Attending Child and Family Team Meetings (CFT's), Foster Care Review Board Meetings (FCRB), and any other meetings pertaining to the case.

Attending Court Hearings, mediations

(Please include travel time to and from your home in your entry)

What information should be entered under Training Log?

Attending a CASA Peer Support Group. These groups include:

CASAs Connecting, CASA Book Club

Reading a book or watching a movie/documentary regarding child welfare, the foster care system, child development, substance abuse, etc.

Attending webinars/trainings held by the local CASA office, State CASA office, Prevent Child Abuse, etc.

Volunteering to help at a CASA recruitment event

What information should be entered under Activity Log?

Anything CASA related not case related. This includes:

Attending CASA appreciation events

How often should I be entering my log entries?

You can enter your log entries on a daily, weekly, or monthly basis depending on your preference. Log entries are due to the CASA office by the last day of each month.

How much information should I be entering?

You can enter one sentence or a few paragraphs for each entry and make sure the information that is being entered is appropriate and relevant to the case. Please avoid entering personal comments in your log entries. Entering detailed information may be helpful as some CASAs often refer to their contact log entries when preparing to write their court report.

REMINDERS

When entering your time for each entry, please make sure to list the time increments as follows:

0-15 minutes = 0.25

16-30 minutes = 0.50

31-45 minutes = 0.75

46-60 minutes = 1.00

Remember to reach out to your CASA Coordinator as they are here to help answer any questions you have when navigating your way through the dashboard

DEPENDENCY 101 CLASS PANEL- PARENTING TIME VISITS & CHILD DYSREGULATION

by Jen Bahr

This year, one of the goals of the Court Team for Infants and Toddlers (Best for Babies) in Yavapai County was to continue to expand Dependency 101 training for foster and kinship placements. On the evening of January 29, 2026, the Dependency 101 Class held at the Juvenile Justice Center in Prescott highlighted a panel that discussed parenting time visits and child dysregulation. The amazing panel consisted of: Foster placement, Verde DCS Case Aide, DCS Parenting Time Coordinator/Prescott DCS Case Aide, and Polara Health Therapist.

During the class, the panel shared what dysregulation may look like for a child before, during, and after visits with their parent(s) and how this may be handled between placements and parent(s). The panel provided an excellent and candid discussion regarding best practices, experience with child dysregulation, examples of child dysregulation, and possible explanations as to why child dysregulation occurs. Dependency 101 Class participants were engaged throughout the class and asked great questions to the panel.

At the Dependency 101 Class, foster and kinship placements were provided the opportunity to obtain a Placement Resource Kit that included: Getting to know your team sheet, shared parenting questionnaires for both parent(s) and placements, conversation logs, visit logs for placements supporting a visit, weekly update sheet, and Transition Planning Discussion Guide.

A huge thank you goes out to DCS for their continued support and willingness to provide childcare for our foster and kinship placements who attend the Dependency 101 Classes!

A huge thank you goes out to the Yavapai CASA for Kids Foundation for the availability of gas gift cards for our placements traveling from the Verde Valley area to attend the Dependency 101 Class!

To everyone who has attended and assisted with a Dependency 101 Class, thank you! Without your continued support and promotion of the classes, they would not continue to grow and be successful!

Please continue to share these wonderful and informative Dependency 101 Classes with those that work with foster and kinship placements. Stay tuned for more details regarding our upcoming May 2026 evening Dependency 101 Class to be held at the Camp Verde Courthouse!

MISPLACED CHILDHOOD: A TRUE STORY OF RESILIENCY AND CHILD ADVOCACY BY JOAN ULSHER

After foster care, Joan is returned home and subjected to more abuse. How can she be saved?

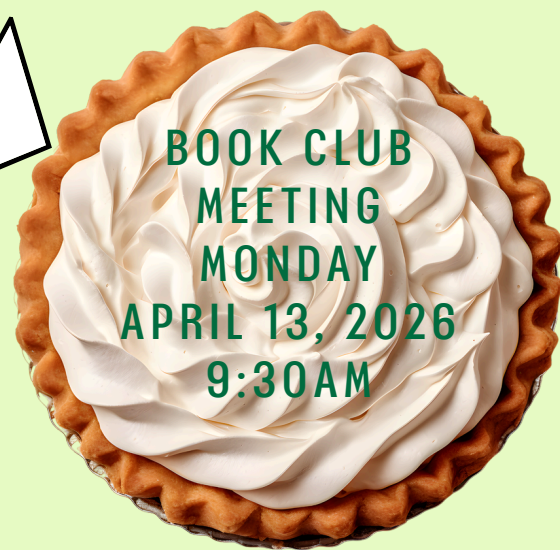

Misplaced Childhood chronicles one woman's powerful journey to overcome a tragic past and use her "lived experiences" to inspire others. Wounded by poverty, child abuse, and foster care, Joan Ulscher discovers a purpose-filled life through military service and faith in God. This transformational journey of survival and triumph ultimately leads Joan to become a fierce volunteer advocate for children in foster care, despite not having a dedicated advocate as a child herself. Misplaced Childhood introduces readers to the Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) model, where Joan continues exploring childhood memories while highlighting her exceptional advocacy journey shaped by the children whose lives are impacted along the way.

With its candid look at child welfare and advocacy alongside a personal narrative of healing, Misplaced Childhood opens up new levels of compassion for children suffering from abuse and neglect. Impeccably researched and told with great transparency, empathy, and vulnerability, Misplaced Childhood will inspire readers to embrace the vulnerable inner child in us all and take action for America's forgotten children.

The Wrapped in Love (WiL) Diaper Bank provides diapers and supplies to struggling families across Yavapai County. Diapers are given to families through their affiliation with a service agency in the community. WiL promotes health and wellness by providing Yavapai County participants with diapers, wipes and referrals to local services. The overarching goal of WiL is to alleviate the cost of diapering and strengthen access to resources for struggling families in Yavapai County.
